How to get a SchokoTicket

If you would like to use buses and trains to get to school and to get around in your free time, then get yourself a SchokoTicket. Simply fill out the subscription application and get it signed and stamped by your school. Then hand over the completed application to your transport company, regardless of whether in person at the customer centre or by post. Your SchokoTicket will then be sent to you by post.

 You can only get a SchokoTicket if your selected school and the local transport company have a contractual obligation.

Are you already older than 15 years? Then every year we will need you to provide us with a certificate of school enrolment.

A small token of our gratitude: AboLust

Would you like to enjoy an unforgettable evening at a musical, exciting days in leisure parks, fantastic parties, discounts when shopping or an eventful short city trip? Then what we can offer is "just the ticket": With the AboLust we would like to express our gratitude to you as a subscriber for your loyalty: Here you will find a variety of leisure time and cultural offers, exclusive discounts and attractive prizes and coupons – all of them twice a year.

So that you can keep an eye on your appointments at all times whether at school or in your leisure time, you will find a coupon in every AboLust with which you can collect your timer from the customer service centre.

Bicycle transport

In general, the transport company will gladly transport your bicycle as well. However, in the interests of all passengers, this may depend on the time of day, the volume of passengers and the space available. Please familiarise yourself in advance with the applicable carry-on regulations of your transport company.

Subscription terms & conditions

You may view the complete subscription terms & conditions as well as our conditions of transport and fare conditions in the Customer Center or online at www.vrr.de.
